

HIDDEN BRITAIN TOURS

We offer luxury full-day, driven tours, the most popular of which is our Jane Austen Dancing Years Tour. This is an essential tour for anyone wanting to know more about Jane Austen's formative years. The morning is spent exploring the countryside and villages surrounding Steventon, the village where she was born and spent her first 25 years. We have lunch in a country inn, and then visit the Jane Austen House Museum at Chawton where she spent her last years. A must for any Janeite!

This unique tour offers visitors an opportunity to see places ignored by larger group tours. It is particularly popular as a day trip out of London, or as a special gift for a fan of Jane Austen. We meet at Basingstoke Station at 10 am, plenty of trains from London Waterloo, departures every fifteen minutes or so, fast trains take about forty-five minutes. See our wonderful reviews on Trip Advisor. Prices for a full day start from £125 per person based on 4 people sharing.

Your guide, Phil Howe, MD of Hidden Britain Tours, studied Politics, Philosophy and English at the University of Reading, was a Senior Lecturer working with universities and colleges, frequently travelling in Europe as a consultant to educational institutions. His vision for Hidden Britain Tours was created in 2005 from his own experience of what he felt was missing from many mainstream tours. He has a rural background, and a talent for explanation.
